

WILL OPEN BIDS

Council in Special Session to Receive
Light Proposals Tonight.

The City Council will meet in special session this evening at 7:30 o'clock, at which time the bids for the contract for public lighting will be opened. According to the public notices to bidders, proposals were received at the clerk's office until 12 o'clock. Only two bids were entered, and these were filed a short time before the hour set in the notice. One of the bids is by C. E. Layton and associates, from Kokomo, and the other by the Seymour Gas and Electric Company.

C. C. Slater, of Columbus, O., is also here, but did not file a bid. He stated that he had not noticed the bid in the Electrical Journal, where it was published, until yesterday and did not have sufficient time to complete his bid. He said that if the Council did not settle the matter upon the bids on file in the clerk's office and advertised for proposals again, he would enter a bid. Several other companies were expected to place bids, but for some reason did not get them to the clerk's office.

Both bids were based upon the plans and specifications which were prepared by C. A. Tripp, of Indianapolis, consulting engineer, and E. P. Elsner, city attorney, and which were approved by the City Council. In this manner, all the competing bidders could figure upon the same basis, and all the bids will cover the same system of lighting.

Before a bid could be considered, it must be accompanied with a certified check, payable to the city treasurer, for $2,000, which shall be forfeited to the city should the bidder fail to enter into a written contract with the city within five days after the acceptance of such bid. The successful bidder shall give a bond of $10,000 to secure the city against any damages, which may result through the neglect or carelessness of the company.

The Council will probably meet tomorrow to discuss the bids presented, and will probably let the contract at that time. It is their intention to grant the contract as soon as possible, so that a more satisfactory lighting system may be provided.

While the light is now very bad, it seems to be the public sentiment, however, that the Council should not grant a franchise until a satisfactory rate is given, even if it would be necessary to readvertise for bids. What the public wants is a good light at the lowest possible rate and now is the time to secure them.

If either of the contracts is accepted by the Council, the successful bidder, will probably be given a franchise, the blank form of which is now on file in the office of the clerk. Before the franchises can be granted it will have to be read in open council on three regular meeting nights.

W. H. M. S. Convention.

The Womans Home Missionary Society of the Methodist Church will hold a district convention at Columbus Thursday, May 12. The meeting was to have been held this week, but was postponed a few days ago. The sessions will be held at the M. E. church.

Mrs. M. B. Hyde, of Indianapolis, is president of the Society and will deliver an address at the convention. A number of members of the local society will attend the meeting. Mrs. Richard Temple has been selected as delegate, and Mrs. Leroy Miller, alternate to the convention.

Miss Louise Murphy was a passenger to North Vernon this morning.

ACCOUNT OF CHAS. STEINWEDER

Township Trustee's Books Found to be Correct By Accounting Board.

The state accounting board has made public the report of the field examiners who examined the books of Charles Steinweder, trustee of Jackson township. The board reports that his books and accounts were found to be in a satisfactory manner.

Mr. Steinweder took charge of the office of township trustee January 1st, 1909. His reports show that during his first year of office, ending January 1, 1910 the total receipts were $10,606.38 and the total expenditures were $7,137.56. After examining the books of the township trustees, the field examiners were returned here to begin work upon the books of the county treasurer and auditor. They have been examining these for several weeks and it is believed that a month or more will be required before they can complete the task.

Rev. D. R. Landis Dead.

Rev. D. R. Landis, who assisted in a series of revival meetings at the First Baptist church here a few years ago, died at a private hospital at Indianapolis Monday evening, April 18. His death was due to pneumonia and peritonitis following a surgical operation. Rev. M. Landis was an evangelist under the Indiana Baptist Convention for several years and has a wide acquaintance over the State.

The funeral will be conducted at Greenwood, his late home, Friday afternoon at 2 o'clock, by the pastor, Rev. E. M. Martinson. Rev. F. M. Huckleberry, who was president of the Indiana Baptist Convention for several years, will preach the funeral sermon, and Rev. W. B. Pope, of Franklin, superintendent of missions, will speak also.

Joins Music Club.

Mrs. Clarence Nicholson, formerly Miss Clara Kolmhorst, of Louisville, has been elected a member of the Coterie, a prominent musical club, at Fort Smith, Arkansas, where she recently located. The "Beautiful Arkansas," in a recent issue, pays tribute to the club and its members, and compliments the high-class musical program given at one of their meetings. Mrs. Nicholson has also been secured as a soloist at the First Presbyterian church there.

B. & O. S-W. Promotions.

Howard McMillan, baggage-master here at the B. & O. S-W. passenger station, is taking a few days' lay off. He will return here about Friday and take the position as night ticket agent. Roscoe Speer, who has been employed at the Hub and Spoke factory recently and formerly worked at Adams' grocery, has secured the position as baggage-master and is already on duty.

$100 REWARD, $100.

The readers of this paper will be pleased to learn that there is at least one dreaded disease that science has been able to cure in all its stages, and that is catarrh. Hall's Catarrh Cure is the only positive cure now known to the medical fraternity. Catarrh being a constitutional disease, requires a constitutional treatment. Hall's Catarrh Cure is taken internally, acting directly upon the blood and mucous surfaces of the system, thereby destroying the foundation of the disease, and giving the patient strength by building up the constitution and assisting nature in doing its work. The proprietors have so much faith in its curative powers that they offer One Hundred Dollars for any case that it fails to cure. Send for list of testimonials.

UNLUCKY DAY.

Several Accidents Occurred Wednesday.
—George Chasteen Injured.

Wednesday was certainly a day of accidents, as someone observed during the day. Besides the other accidents that have been mentioned, George Chasteen, son of Robert Chasteen, of Bobtown, was seriously injured while cutting wood. He had cut off a limb and put his foot on it to hold it when he struck his foot with the ax. The tendon in the great toe was severed and there was a partial fracture of the bone. The accident occurred late in the afternoon, and he was brought to this city in the evening, where he received medical attention. The accident was quite serious and will keep him laid up for some time.

The Banker's Child.

The Bankers Child will be presented at the Majestic this evening. This is a play which has been popular with theatergoers for the past years, and today the production is witnessed with as much interest as it was when it was first staged. During the play there are fine singing and dancing specialties by the members of the company. The comedians Lavegne and Jordan are themselves worth the price of admission.

Falls From Ladder.

Vane Hays fell from a stepladder this morning where he was working on North Ewing street, and was quite seriously injured. The accident will cause him to have to lay off for a short time at least.

NOTICE TO CONTRACTORS.

Sealed proposals in duplicate will be received by the Board of School Trustees of the City of Seymour, Indiana, at the office of the President, until twelve o'clock noon on the 10th day of May, 1910, for all labor and material necessary for the construction of a new high school building, including the plumbing, heating and electric wiring for same according to drawings and specifications on file on and after the 20th day of April, 1910, in the offices of the Superintendent of Schools at Seymour, and of Foltz and Parker, Architects, Indianapolis, Indiana.

Proposals must be made according to the printed form furnished by the Board. Each bidder must deposit with his proposal a certified check, payable to the treasurer of said Board, in a sum equal to 2 per cent. of the amount of his bid; in case the bidder whose proposal is accepted fails within ten days after notice of acceptance to enter into a written contract with the Board of Education to perform the proposal and secure the contract by a bond equal in amount to 60 per cent. of the contract price, in a form and with securities to the approval of the Board, his certified check and the proceeds thereof shall be and remain the absolute property of said Board, as liquidated damages occasioned by such failure, and the bidder shall be liable for nothing beyond the proceeds of the check for such failure.

No proposal will be considered unless all terms provided herein are complied with. Separate proposals will be considered for plumbing, electric wiring and heating. The Board reserves the right to reject any or all proposals, and to waive defects or informalities in any proposal if it is deemed to the interest of the Board so to do.

Duplicate copies of plans and specifications for private use can be had of the architects upon a deposit of ten dollars for each set, one-half of which amount will be rebated upon the return of the drawings and specifications in good order to the architects.

NOTE—The time for receiving bids has been extended from May 3d until May 10th, 1910.

AUTOMOBILE LINE

May be Established Between Medora and Brownstown.

It is understood that a number of citizens of Medora are thinking of establishing an automobile line from that place to Brownstown. It is their intention to arrange the schedule, if possible, so that the automobile will make connections with the car that runs from Seymour to Brownstown. In this manner through service from the western part of the county to this city would be provided, and such a route would undoubtedly be well patronized by the traveling public. The men who are back of the new line, expect to run to Seymour when the traffic is too heavy for the car which now makes regular trips. They will probably arrange with the owners of the Seymour-Brownstown line whereby that car will run to Medora when they are unable to carry the passengers.

The citizens of Medora filed a petition with the Indiana Railroad Commission a few months ago requesting that arrangements be made with the B. & O. S-W. for better passenger service. The matter was taken up by the Commission but before any action was taken an agreement was affected whereby certain passenger trains would stop if there were a specified number of passengers for that town. It seems, however, that this agreement was not entirely satisfactory to some of the citizens, who wanted better service.

The schedule for the new automobile line can probably be arranged so that the local needs can be better accommodated, and a service inaugurated which will be more satisfactory.

The Medora automobile will go via Vallonia so that the people in that vicinity will receive the benefit of the improved service.

McDonald Home Sold.

Mrs. Melvina McDonald has sold her home at the south end of Poplar street, south of McDonald, and she and her son, Lafe Coryea, will leave shortly for the state of Oregon to make their future home. They have their household goods advertised to sell at once and will leave as soon as the same has been disposed of. Their residence and five acres of ground was purchased recently by Mr. and Mrs. George Schrier. Five acres south of the residence was purchased by Henry Reickers and Gottlieb Wolf bought the lots lying next to his residence at McDonald and Poplar streets. This ground is all well located and immediately adjacent to the city and as there has been much building in that part of the city recently, it is possible that much of this will be sold out in lots in the near future for the building of other homes.

Child Choked to Death.

The three-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. Irwin Stark, of Scottsburg, was choked to death of a grain of corn Wednesday about eleven o'clock. The corn became lodged in the child's windpipe and before it could be removed the child died. Mr. Stark is a motorman on the I. & L. Traction line.

CASES PENDING

Concerning Wage Scale for Employees
of B. & O. S-W.

The demand of the employees on the B. & O. S-W. for a higher wage scale will probably be settled in a short time. General Manager C. C. F. Bent, of the B. & O. S-W., said yesterday that while he had held no conferences with any of the company's employees except the switchmen and yardmen, who have been granted an increase in pay, the cases are still pending, and will be taken up from time to time, at the pleasure of the several committees. Final action, however, has been delayed pending the result of the controversies on the Baltimore and Ohio, all of which are said to be about ready to be settled. It is probable that these settlements will be used as a basis for terms of agreement on the B. & O. S-W.

Series X.

Series X of Cooperative Building and Loan Association stock which started Monday April 4 is one of the largest ever issued by the Association. New stock is still being issued almost every day and persons wishing to invest may see the secretary, Thos. J. Clark, opera house block, yet, and take shares. It is a good investment as is attested by the continually increasing patronage of the reliable Cooperative.

Other guests were: Mrs. Grace Julian Clarke, of Indianapolis, and Mrs. Virginia C. Meredith, of Cambridge City. Snow Bound in Iowa.

Charles Foist received a letter from Peter Fleming, of Traer, Iowa, Wednesday stating that a twenty-two inch snow had fallen from Saturday until Monday. Mr. Fleming said that the trees were green and the ground was ready for planting corn when the snow came. Mr. Fleming formerly lived in Jackson County and moved to Iowa some time ago.

Music by School.

Robert J. Ale, state superintendent of public instruction, is in favor of having the music at commencement exercises throughout the state given by pupils in the schools. That increases interest in the exercises inasmuch as almost everybody present has some member of the family present participating in some degree is one of the arguments advanced by Dr. Ale.

FAMILY REUNION.

Casper Schafer Celebrates 83th Birthday Anniversary.

Wednesday was the eighty-third birthday of Casper Schafer and the event was celebrated by a family reunion. All of the children were present. Louis W. and daughter, Mary, of Lafayette; George, his wife and daughter, Vivian, of Indianapolis; Mr. and Mrs. Jos. Hartlein and son, Alfred, of Evansville; Nick, his wife and daughter, Helen, of Montpelier, O.; Mrs. Tom McGuire, of Quincy; Mr. and Mrs. E. M. Moore and daughter, Mary Elizabeth, of Indianapolis. Other guests were: Mr. and Mrs. Anthony Richart and Louis Richart, Sr.

For the past several days Mrs. Schafer has been sparing no pains to make the home coming day an event long to be remembered. She was assisted in receiving by her niece, Miss Mayme Reinhart.

The table appointments were extremely dainty and artistic. The center ornament was a cluster bouquet of eighty-three carnations presented by his children in honor of his birthday. The table fairly groaned under their weight of tempting viands. In the afternoon a group picture was taken of all the family.

Casper Schafer is one of the pioneer citizens of Seymour. Although retired from active business for a number of years he is still highly interested in all that concerns the welfare of Seymour. He came from Germany at the age of 25 and has lived in Seymour for over 50 years. His many friends wish for him still many years of health and happiness.

Brakeman Injured.

William Holly, a brakeman who has one of the freight runs on the Southern Indiana between this city and Terre Haute, met with quite a serious accident at Heltonville Wednesday. He was uncoupling some cars when his hand was caught and badly crushed. His injuries were attended by a physician at Heltonville, and he came on here with his train. His headquarters are at Terre Haute, but his home is somewhere in Kentucky.

Chester C. Wyman Resigns.

Chester C. Wyman has resigned his position as Chief electrician with the Indianapolis & Louisville Traction Company and has taken the office of general manager of the Scott County Telephone Company. The traction company has obtained Leslie A. Andis, of Scottsburg, to take the position formerly held by Mr. Wyman.

Police Court.

Earl Sullivan was in the Mayor's court Wednesday afternoon upon a charge of assault and battery, the affidavit having been filed by his wife. The defendant was found guilty as charged and fined $1 and costs, amounting to $11.

Improvements.

Mr. and Mrs. W. W. Tabb are making some improvements at their home on North Chestnut street. Several rooms are being added, the basement enlarged, and the house otherwise improved.

Penmanship.

Every lover of good penmanship who does not see Prof. Ross' writing displayed in the window of the Seymour Business College will miss a treat.

A Storekeeper Says:

"A lady came into my store lately and said:
"I have been using a New Perfection Oil Cook-Stove all winter in my apartment. I want one now for my summer home. I think these oil stoves are wonderful. If only women knew what a comfort they are, they would all have one. I spoke about my stove to a lot of my friends, and they were astonished. They thought that there was smell and smoke from an oil stove, and that it heated a room just like any other stove. I told them of my experience, and one after another they got one, and now, not one of them would give hers up for five times its cost!"

The lady who said this had thought an oil stove was all right for quickly heating milk for a baby, or boiling a kettle of water, or to make coffee quickly in the morning, but she never dreamed of using it for difficult or heavy cooking. Now—she knows.

Do you really appreciate what a New Perfection Oil Cook-Stove means to you? No more coal to carry, no more coming to the dinner table so tired out that you can't eat. Just light a Perfection Stove and immediately the heat from an intense blue flame shoots up to the bottom of pot, kettle or even. But the room isn't heated. There is no smoke, no smell, no outside heat, no drudgery in the kitchen where one of these stoves is used.

Cautionary Note: Be sure you get this stove—see that the name-plate reads "New Perfection."

PRINCE LUITPOLD

Aged Ruler of Bavaria Greeted Colonel Roosevelt.

GREETED BY PRINCE

Oldest of the World's Rulers Meets
Roosevelt at Munich.

Munich, April 21.—Budapest allowed Colonel Roosevelt to depart in peace. There was no demonstration at the station. Colonel Roosevelt devoted the day on the train to correspondence. When he arrived here Prince Luitpold, regent of Bavaria, the oldest of the world's rulers, was waiting to welcome him, accompanied by a soldier bearing a bouquet for the ex-president. There was a large crowd at the station.

THEY DISPLAYED A LACK OF CONFIDENCE

House Cuts Out Amendments to Conservation Bill.

Washington, April 21.—The bill authorizing the president to make with draws of public lands in certain cases—the first of the administration conservation measures—has been passed by the house. Lack of confidence in the genuineness of the conservation ideas of the committee on public lands, of which Representative Mondell of Wyoming is chairman, was demonstrated by the elimination from the measure of the only two committee amendments of importance. One of them provided that "Such withdrawals shall not affect the legal rights of any settler or entryman acquired prior to such withdrawals," and the other provided "that upon restoration of any such lands the equitable rights shall attach as to rival claimants to any bona fide claimant who prior to such withdrawals initiated a claim thereto and made valuable improvements thereon." Dozens of amendments were offered by members from the west who wished to soften the bill and limit its scope in a number of respects. They were invariably unsuccessful, the Democratic strength with those Republicans who have come to be known as insurgents uniformly voting against the regulars who stood by the public lands committee.

After the bill had been reported out of committee of the whole, which was not accomplished without a great deal of wrangling and voting by tellers—Representatives Rucker of Colorado and Robinson of Arkansas offered substitutes for the bill. They were voted down, as was a motion by Martin of Colorado, to strike out the enacting clause.

Bitter complaint was made by Representative Hamer of Idaho and others that the conservation policy, as it seemed thus to be interpreted by the house, would "make a howling wilderness of the west." But these complaints seemed to have no effect and the bill with the elimination of the committee amendments in question was passed substantially as introduced by Representative Pickett of Iowa.

NEARING THE END

Mark Twain Much Weaker Today and Gradually Sinking.

New York, April 21.—Samuel L. Clemens (Mark Twain) is weaker today and is gradually sinking, being unconscious much of the time. He does not respond as well as he did to stimulants, and both cardiac and pulmonary symptoms are not so favorable, say his physicians.

He Took It to Heart.

Montezuma, Ind., April 21.—Unrequited love prompted Hosea Johnson, aged twenty-three, to commit suicide. He had just left the home of Miss Edna Berry, his sweetheart, when she refused to have anything more to do with him.

Supreme Bench For Hughes.

Washington, April 21.—It can be stated on authority that President Taft has decided to offer the vacancy on the supreme court bench caused by Justice Brewer's death, to Governor Hughes of New York.

NOW IN THE OPEN

Tom Taggart Has Boldly Declared
Himself as the Issue.

[Special Correspondence.]

Indianapolis, April 21.—Thomas Taggart is in the race for the United States senatorship against Senator Beveridge. The director general of the Indiana Democratic party came to the open today and declared himself to be an out and out aspirant for the senatorship. It has been known for many weeks that Mr. Taggart desired to attain the senatorship, and to take from the hand of Senator Beveridge the commission given to Mr. Beveridge in 1899 by the people of Indiana. But it is only in the last day that Mr. Taggart has been forced to display his hand. In accord with the Taggart method for many years past, it was his purpose to slip silently about the state, land his friends in the legislature, slip the secret-ballot blinders on the Democratic caucus next winter, and force himself through. The caucus of 1911 was to be a repetition of the scandal and double-cross of the caucus of 1909, which caucus John W. Kern and John E. Lamb so bitterly denounced. But circumstances over which Mr. Taggart could not exert entire control have brought a change in his plans, and he is now out in the open fighting for his political existence and for his prestige as a party boss.

When Thomas Taggart took over the Democratic state organization bag and baggage, getting 12 of the 13 district chairmen, the entire executive committee, 11 of the 13 members of the advisory committee, the chairman and the secretary, the friends of Governor Marshall sat back and said that after all the organization was not the whole works. Some critics of the anti-Taggart school assailed the governor somewhat bitterly because he did not step to the fore and lead the attack against Taggartism. But the governor said that the real fight should come in the state convention, and that so far as he was concerned, he would wait until convention day to move against Taggart. The state organization went to Taggart. It costs a lot of money and takes a lot of time to fight Taggart, and the anti-Taggart man is not at all sure of winning when once he has gained his own way. Note the case of Fabe Gwin, for instance, in the Second district, who was chosen against a Taggart man. Fabe is one of the best of the best in the state. So the anti-Taggart men never can tell whether the fruits of victory are to be lemon-hued or worth while.

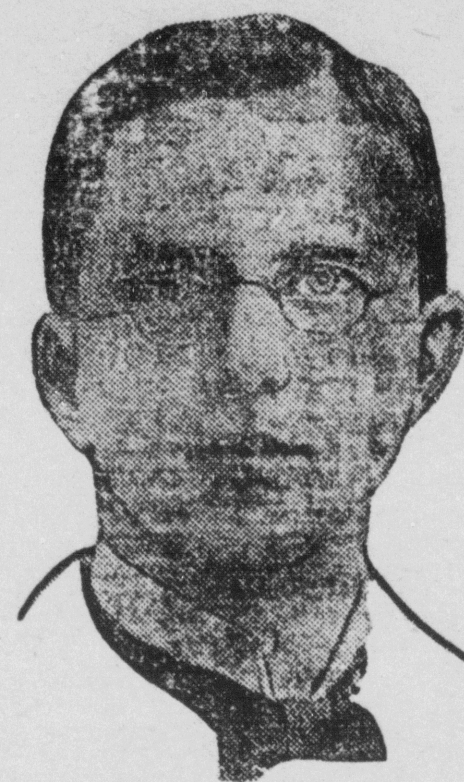

But to resume the disquisition on the Marshall fight against Taggartism, and to describe the status quo, as it were, of the Democratic war in Indiana. After Mr. Taggart possessed himself of the state organization, the Marshall and Kern forces figured out a plan of campaign. Mr. Kern placed one or two of his big guns, and without warning began firing. His interview denouncing the legislative caucus of Democrats that elected Senator Shively was a havoc-spreader among Democratic bosses. Mr. Kern then sent forward mountain batteries and rapid fire guns to attack the Taggart position at vital points. He routed the Taggart men in Hancock county. He dispersed the Taggart troops in the district that elected State Senator Burtney Shafer. He has done similar effective shelling in county after county. Where he has not defeated the Taggart leaders, he has demoralized the organization forces and spread mutiny. Along in the midst of the uproar caused by the Kern batteries came the boom of Governor Marshall's mortar battery, proclaiming the principle of state convention selection of the Democratic candidate for United States senator. This shot was aimed directly at the Taggart candidacy. The Marshall gunners trained their pieces on the Taggart position from every angle. They have made things so interesting for Mr. Taggart that he has broken from cover and is fighting openly, on the front, as well as covertly on the flanks of the governor's intrenchments.

It can be said at this time that Mr. Taggart will go through the contest wherever it may be started, and that he will win or lose on the issue raised by the governor. The delegate majority in the Democratic state convention will have a chance to make choice between Thomas Taggart, Judge Joseph H. Shea, Major G. V. Menzies and John E. Lamb, or some other man of like stamp, as against such Democrats as Congressman J. A. M. Adair, Congressman Lincoln Dixon, Daniel W. Simms, L. E. Slack, or some man of the stronger class. What will the convention do? Will Thomas Taggart rule a majority of the delegates? If Thomas Taggart, through his hustling state organization—a party organization working night and day to do one man's whimsical behest—can gain the support of a majority of the state delegates for his senatorial ambition, then rises the question of campaign methods, and revival of the 1909 scandal and clamor of accusation. For be it known that the announcement of Mr. Taggart's purpose to fight Governor Marshall and take down the senatorial prize comes coincidentally with the return from South America of Crawford Fairbanks, head of the Terre Haute Brewing company.

Those who know Mr. Taggart know that Crawford Fairbanks and Mr. Taggart have been associated in the past, not alone in politics, but in the ownership and conduct of hotels, health resorts and casinos.

A Stroke of Business.

A writer who was very intimate with Frank R. Stockton says that when the Stockton family lived in Bucks county, Pa., Frank and his brother had a dog which they trained solely to hunt cats. The brothers were overhauled one day by a farmer whose cat they were chasing. To placate the farmer they gave him a dollar for a pig, which they took home. By driving away their father's pigs at feeding time they soon made their own the fattest pig in the pen and sold him at a profit of $7. Frank R. Stockton always considered the deal a tribute to his business acumen.

New Speed Meter For Automobiles.

The Faro meter, a new speed meter for automobiles, is the invention of an Englishman. Placed in front of the vehicle, the exact speed may be ascertained at any time either from the vehicle or from the road. An excess of speed limit is announced by a gong, which continues to sound until speed is reduced. For night driving excess speed is also indicated by the figures on the face of the instrument being illuminated in red.

Daddy's Bedtime Story—

Mary and Her Little Lamb

"I'm going to tell you tonight, children, an old, old story," said daddy. "But maybe you haven't heard it. It's about Mary's little lamb."

"Oh, yes! I have," said Evelyn.

"Mary had a little lamb;
Its feet was white as snow,
And everywhere that Mary went
The lamb was sure to go."

"No, no," said daddy, "not its FEET. It's FLEECE was white as snow. A lamb's fleece is the nice soft white wool all over its body. Well, Mary was very fond of her little lamb, and it followed her around the yard and into the house. Mary played with it until it was time for her to go to school. Then she put on her little fur coat and her woolen hood and mittens and trotted off to the schoolhouse. The lamb would watch her through a crack in the fence and say, 'Baa, baa, baa.' That was the way the lamb cried."

"At last one day Mary left the yard gate open when she started to school, and the lamb got out and followed her. 'Better go back home, Baa,' said Mary. 'Baa, baa,' cried the lamb. And Mary was so sorry for it that she let it go along right up to the schoolhouse."

"The school bell rang and school took up. In marched the lamb right behind Mary. The children, who ought to have been very quiet, studying their books, saw the lamb and began to laugh and play. They said 'Baa!' just like the lamb, and Mary's little lamb trotted up to some of them and put its nose in their hands to be petted."

"The teacher, who was a tall young woman, stood up at her desk and asked, 'Who's little lamb is that?' 'It's Mary's little lamb,' said Kattie Connelly, 'and it has followed her to school.' 'Baa, baa,' said the little lamb, and then all the children said 'Baa!'"

"The teacher looked real stern and frowny. 'Look here, Mary McFudge,' said the teacher, 'didn't you know it was against the rules to bring a lamb to school?'"

"'But I didn't bring him—he just comed,' said Mary."

"'You should say he just came, Mary,' said the teacher. 'There's no such word as 'comed' in our language, and there must be no such animal as a lamb in our school. Take your little lamb home, Mary.'"

"'Boo, hoo, hoo!' cried Mary, who was scared because the teacher was scolding her. 'Baa, baa,' said Mary's little lamb, which ran up and put its head under her arm to comfort her. 'Baa! I don't care, Mary,' said the lamb. 'I can't learn to read anyway, so I'll just trot along back home.'"

HUNGARIANS DELIGHTED

The Colonel's Warm Welcome
at Budapest.

PEOPLE GENERALLY TURN OUT

After a Day's Journey From Vienna Which Was One Continuous Ovation Enroute, Colonel Roosevelt Reaches Budapest in a Rain Which, However, Did Not Deter the Thousands Who Gathered to Give Him Enthusiastic Greeting.

Budapest, April 18.—Roosevelt's welcome to Hungary surpassed anything he is likely to experience during his whole tour. The crowds and the enthusiasm could not have been greater if the people had been welcoming the savior of the country. Nine addresses of welcome and nine speeches of thanks formed part of the program of Roosevelt's third Sunday in Europe. Leaving Vienna at 9:05 in the morning, an enthusiastic crowd bade him farewell. At Pressburg, on the Hungarian frontier, Count Apponyi, formerly Hungarian prime minister, with the mayor, a crowd of citizens and a band of fiddlers, met him. The mayor welcomed in the Magyar language. Then a local orator in fluent English made an impassioned speech to "the great apostle of freedom," concluding with a quotation from Longfellow.

Roosevelt's reply was almost as fervid as he told how long he had admired and loved Hungary, which every man from the western state of America must do. Count Apponyi then took Roosevelt and Kermit to an automobile. The fiddlers remained to collect pence.

The little city of Pressburg turned out to a man. The mayor, the local orator and Roosevelt again exchanged speeches. The drive to Count Apponyi's chateau lay through three villages, one Hungarian, one Slovak and one German. The whole population of each turned out to welcome the visitor. Strive for liberty, with religion, and help the weak without making them weaker, was Roosevelt's advice to the villagers as he addressed them on the village green, Count Apponyi translating. In each place a posy was presented to the former president and a little speech of welcome made by one of the smallest schoolgirls. Hungarian flags were everywhere. Here and there might be seen the proud possessor of an American flag; and always a band of fiddlers.

When the chateau was reached Roosevelt took lunch with a few of Count Apponyi's friends. Then there was an automobile ride to another railroad station, a drive of an hour and a half, which was a repetition of the morning's program. The party passed through two villages, where the usual crowds had collected and the usual speeches were made. In one village a little boy got off a speech in English, saying, "I'm very glad to see you, Mr. Roosevelt." This stirred up great enthusiasm. The inmates of every farmhouse along the route turned out to cheer as the party passed, and so the station was reached. Here there were more speeches and here also were the most frenzied fiddlers of the whole day, but Budapest gave the finishing touch to the day's enthusiasm.

The train arrived at 9 in the evening. Rain was falling, but in response to the mayor's appeal the townsfolk turned out by the thousands. There must have been 6,000 waiting outside the station in the rain. Within the station itself the crowd swarmed everywhere, and when the train came in the officials could hardly clear the track. Scores of men and boys climbed onto the roofs of the cars. A fervent welcome was extended by the mayor, and Roosevelt, wearing a cavalry colonel's coat and a black felt hat, made an eloquent reply. Roosevelt then proceeded through crowded streets to the hotel, the people cheering and shouting "Long live Teddy." At the hotel he was forced to address the crowd from a balcony.

Myron D. King Resumes Active Part in Indiana Politics.

Indianapolis, April 19.—Myron D. King of Indianapolis has been appointed secretary of the Democratic state committee by U. S. Jackson, state chairman, to succeed William F. Moore, who resigned recently. Mr. King has been a resident of Indianapolis for thirty-five years, and has been active in Democratic politics for many years. Myers and Claude Matthews, and when Mr. Matthews was elected governor of Indiana in 1892, Mr. King was appointed to fill out the unexpired term of Mr. Matthews as secretary of state. The unexpired term lasted only nine days, and at the end of that time Mr. King was appointed secretary to Governor Matthews, in which capacity he served for four years. Mr. King was auditor of the national Democratic committee in 1904 and in 1908.

Pottawattomies Say They Have

THE CHICAGO LAKE FRONT

One of the Most Valuable Strips of Land in the World, Together With the Entire Circumference of Lake Michigan, Is Claimed by Tribe Which Has Now Dwindled Down to About Three Hundred Members.

South Bend, Ind., April 19.—A St. Joseph county jail prisoner sentenced a week ago in the city court for intoxication, will come into a fortune amounting to considerably more than $100,000, if protests on file with the government at Washington are recognized. The prisoner, Andrew Rapp of Dowagiac, Mich., is a member of the tribe of Pottawattomie Indians, claiming the Chicago lake front and a strip of land around Lake Michigan.

The Indian is strong in his conviction the government will recognize the claims of his tribe and pay for the valuable real estate within the next few years.

According to the claims of the red man, the land was given the tribe for a reservation by the government in 1795. A strip of land extending completely around Lake Michigan is claimed to have been the tract presented to the Indians. Later the reservation was taken over by white men and the city of Chicago sprang up on the shore of the lake. Members of the Pottawattomie tribe, after consulting Chicago attorneys a few years ago, decided the government should settle for the Chicago lake front, resulting in the filing of claims at Washington.

About 275 members of the tribe, including children and grandchildren, are living, according to the Indian prisoner. In case the government decided to pay the appraised value for the land, Rapp would receive a considerable amount over $100,000. Between $35,000,000 and $40,000,000 is due for the land, the red man states. Isao Quigno, Hartford City, Mich., is chief of the Pottawattomie tribe, while Frank Hamilton, living near Lydick, this county, is secretary.

AN INDIANA WOMAN WILL BE A WITNESS

Important Link in Haskell Prosecution Chain.

Evansville, Ind., April 20.—Mrs. Louise Miller, a widow residing in this city, has been summoned to appear at Tulsa, Okla., on May 16, and will be one of the witnesses for the prosecution in the cases against Governor Haskell, and much reliance will be placed on the testimony she is expected to give.

Mrs. Miller was a resident of Tulsa eight years ago. At that time, according to reports, Mr. Haskell purchased some government lands in the name of Mrs. Miller, who was a close friend of the Haskell family. It is stated she permitted Haskell to use her name in the purchase of land and that she received nothing for so doing. Mrs. Miller, it is said, did not know this would have been a violation of the law, and she, in fact, thought nothing of it until the land fraud charges were brought against the governor.

TREASURE TROVE

Containing $50,000 Discovered Beneath the Waters of the Gulf.

Galveston, Tex., April 20.—A large steel safe containing diamonds, jewelry and money estimated at more than $50,000 has been located in the gulf in twenty feet of water and buried deep in the sand.

The safe has been identified as the property of J. Williams, a jeweler, which was washed away from the historic seaport of Indianola when that town was destroyed by a gulf hurricane and tidal wave in 1875. Williams and his daughter were drowned in the storm and the building containing the safe washed to sea. Divers have examined the safe and find it intact, with the face buried deep in the sand, and in good condition. Arrangements are being made to lift the treasure and take it ashore.

Women's Remarkable Escape.

Knightstown, Ind., April 18.—Hurled sixty feet when their buggy was hit by a fast Pennsylvania train at a crossing just west of Dunreith, Mrs. Cora Dillon and Miss Grace Fravin of Rushville had a remarkable escape from death. Aside from a few bruises neither of the women was injured.

The traffic officials of the Erie railroad are in conference at New York with reference to wages.

SEEKING EVIDENCE

The Government Wants to Know About That Pool in Cotton.

New York, April 20.—The government's investigation of the bull pool in cotton was begun when four members of the cotton exchange were called before the federal grand jury to tell what they know of an alleged agreement entered into on Feb. 26 last by Frank B. Hayne, William P. Brown and others to control the price of cotton. After a session lasting not quite two hours, the examination was adjourned until next Tuesday.

It was stated by a man who talked with members of the firm of Dick Bros. & Co., after the investigation was over for the day, that the government is now in possession of the contract of Feb. 26 between the leaders of the bull pool and that the governor also has other data showing that the bull operators had made agreements with spinning interests by which the spinners were to take from the pool members all of the cotton delivered to them on the long contracts, and that the conditions of these agreements as to prices and delivery violate the federal laws against monopoly and restraint of trade. On the other hand Nathaniel L. Carpenter of Carpenter, Baggot & Co., who is one of the men subpoenaed in the government action, said: "I don't know anything about the existence of a pool, and I have not yet found a man who does know anything about it."

CHARGE STANDS

Former Township Trustee at Anderson Must Face Court Again.

Anderson, Ind., April 19.—Special Judge Shuman, in circuit court, overruled a motion to quash an indictment alleging bribery against Francis M. Hardy, former trustee of Anderson township, including this city. Hardy was tried several months ago on an indictment alleging perjury in connection with his final report as township trustee, but on trial was acquitted.

Since then the motion to quash the bribery indictment has been pending. Field examiners of the state accounting board recently in their report alleged that Hardy is indebted to Anderson township in the sum of $5,000 or more. No charge has yet been filed against Hardy on the report of the field examiners. Hardy is a farmer and a Republican.

BLOOD FLOWS AT "BLOODY ANGLE"

McKee's Rocks the Scene of Another Battle.

SEVERAL MORTALLY WOUNDED

When Constables Gathered to Disperse a Crowd of Car Works Strikers the Shooting Became General, and When the Smoke Cleared Away Seven Persons Were Found Wounded, Three of Whom Will Probably Die.

Pittsburg, April 21.—At least seven persons were injured, three of whom will probably die, in a battle between strikers and township constables at McKee's Rocks, Pa. The dying are: Constable J. M. Daniels, shot through abdomen and chest; Joe Blenot, Hungarian striker, shot several times by the constables, and an unknown striker, who refuses to give his name.

In addition to this one of the attacking strikers was hit by a train as he was escaping from the pursuing mob and knocked over the bank. He is thought to have fallen into the river, but no trace of him could be found. A farmer named Hannan was shot through the hand and two unknown foreigners were carried away by their friends, apparently badly injured, but their names cannot be learned.

The battle occurred just at dusk in the now notorious bloody angle where so much rioting and bloodshed occurred in the last strike, and where the Victor bank was looted and two employees killed some weeks ago. There had been a mass-meeting held by the Industrial Workers of the World on a nearby Indian mound, and about 250 of the foreign-speaking workmen on their way back stopped at bloody angle to talk matters over. One leader was haranguing his fellow workmen in an unknown tongue and they were getting wildly excited when Chief of Police Silvers of Sloe township, with Constable Daniels, came up to the crowd and ordered it to disperse.

The speaker shouted something as he jumped from the perch on which he had been standing and there was a spilt of flame from the crowd and Daniels fell, shot through the body. Three bullets passed through the clothing of Chief Silvers, but none hurt him. The mob, after its first fire of perhaps a dozen shots made a rush for the prostrate constable, but Chief Silvers, standing over Daniels, began to shoot. Daniels rose to one arm and lent his fire, while four other constables who had been in the next square came running up, shooting as they came.

"Get that big fellow, he has killed Jimmy," shouted Chief Silvers to his men as he tried to bring down a large foreigner who had been shooting from behind a tree. One of the constables closed with the foreigner, who, clasped from his hiding place, ran toward the Ohio river with a constable in pursuit. The man tried to cross the Pittsburg & Lake Erie tracks just as a freight engine, running wild, came along, and he was tossed by the cow-catcher over the bank.

In the meantime Chief Silvers and his men were having a hot time in the angle. The foreigners under the leadership of some strange men, gathered up rocks when their ammunition became exhausted and hurled them at the constables, who were backed in against a fence and had to fight their way out.

The Cat "Yumped."

The Nickingtons, suburban house holders, brought back from the beach a cat which the Swedish maid discovered there and had gradually educated to some athletic tricks. Mr. Nickington was endeavoring to demonstrate to visitors what had been taught. Making a hoop of his arms, he invited the cat to leap through the opening.

"Jump, jump, jump!" he bade the feline coaxingly. Kitty never stirred, but turned away in indifference.

The maid arrived. Nickington expressed his disappointment. The maid, Olga, insisted that it could perform and would.

"Here!" she commanded to the cat. "Come, yump, yump, yump!"

The cat yumped.—Boston Record.

System In Saving.

"The only good plan for saving is to make it an invariable rule to deposit something each week or each month," says a bank president. "Having thus put the money aside, it should be considered out of reach and on no account to be drawn upon except in case of sickness, loss of employment or death. It is surprising how money will pile up when such a system as this is followed. If every one who possesses any income at all would adopt the practice and stick to it, no matter how small the deposits might be, poverty would be well nigh abolished."

Meyerbeer and Thunder.

Meyerbeer, like Handel, composed best in a thunderstorm. He had a room made at the top of his house with glass roof and sides, so that he might enjoy these conditions to the full whenever they presented themselves. It is said that no beast of the field, no raven or nightjar, could scent the approach of a storm more unerringly than Meyerbeer, and nothing was allowed to interfere with his solitary enjoyment of it when it arrived. Wherever he was he would leave at the first premonitory rumble.

Missouri's Attorney General Going After Beef Trust.

TO RUN IT OUT OF THE STATE

Attorney General Major Declares That He Has Gathered All the Information Needed to Proceed on Ground That Armour, Swift and Morris Dominate the Packing Interests of This Country.

St. Louis, April 21.—Attorney General Major of Missouri declares that he will within thirty days institute ouster proceedings against the Swift, Armour and Morris interests and all subsidiary companies of the National Packing company operating in Missouri. He made this statement at the conclusion of the preliminary hearing here, which he brought to an abrupt close, declaring that he had all the information he needed to proceed on the ground that the Armour, Swift and Morris interests dominate the packing business of this country and have formed a combination in restraint of trade. The attorneys for the packers say he cannot prove this.

Major gave out a brief summary of the testimony which he says showed that of the $5,000,000 capital stock of the National Packing company, which the evidence also showed controlled the operation of twenty-four ostensible independent companies, $6,000,000 is owned by J. Ogden Armour; $7,000,000 by Gustavus Swift, and the balance $2,000,000 by Morris. They hold regular meetings, he says, and fix prices for the country.

WORKING-OVERTIME

Three Hundred Saloonists at Gary Getting Ready For Business.

Chicago, April 21.—Gary, the steel town made to order, is astonishing Indiana again by another "made to order" movement. Two hundred saloons are now in the making and more are to come. This is because on May 2 Gary will be wet. For two years it has been a desert. Recently the voters decided that it had been irrigated with alcohol, so the busy saloon keeper is working overtime to get in line on May day. From the city records it is expected that 300 saloons will open simultaneously.

CIGAR AND CIGARETTE.

Smoker Gets More Nicotine From Former, Says Scientist.

Dr. Frank C. Kinsey of Three Rivers, Mich., in a report to the State Medical society of his laboratory research into the effects of cigars and cigarettes says cigars are worse than cigarettes. Some of the things the doctor declares are:

One cigar yields as much crude nicotine as nine ordinary cigarettes.

A smoker gets 77 per cent of the total nicotine out of a cigar, 55½ per cent out of a cigarette.

There is no arsenic in cigarette papers.

There is no opiate or "dope" in a cigarette.

The smoking of one cigar is equivalent to the smoking of about ten cigarettes in immediate succession.

Less nicotine is absorbed from a skinny cigar than from a fat one of the same strength and weight.

The doctor enters into a description of the methods of extracting nicotine from cigarettes and cigars and pictures with scientific detail the death of a six pound rat which was given four drops of "homemade" nicotine and the severe illness of an eight pound cat which was given one drop.

Moving Picture as an Educator.

The moving picture is now applied to educational purposes, says the Scientific American. Chemical tests are now exhibited on the screen. There are films illustrating the electrolysis of water, action of nitric acid on silver and action of aqua regia on metallic gold, etc. The test tube is thrown on the screen many times enlarged, and the chemical action is clearly illustrated. Most unsavory, but educational, is a film illustrating the peril of the fly. The flies are shown laying eggs in unsavory places, and before the eyes of the spectators the eggs develop in heaps of wriggling maggots. In the final stage the winged fly is shown in all its unsavory glory. Still another film exhibits the acrobatic fly lying on its back juggling various articles with its feet and even swinging a dumb-bell as large as the insect itself.

Pneumonia Cured by Serum.

A record of six cases of pneumonia ordinarily fatal, in which, after a treatment of inoculation with a vaccine of killed pneumococci, there was a complete recovery, is announced by Dr. Henry A. Craig, assistant physician at the Sailor's Snug Harbor hospital, New Brighton, N. Y., in the Medical Record.

In these cases the ages of the patients were from sixty-six to eighty-seven years, and, as is well known, pneumonia is fatal in almost all cases at that age. What is perhaps more important is that all the patients had a marked alcoholic history, and all showed marked arterio-sclerosis.

LATEST MOVE IN A VIGOROUS WAR

The Pulpit to Sound the Call to Better Health.

THE FIGHT ON TUBERCULOSIS

The National Crusade Against This Devastating Though Preventable Disease Has Found a Way Into the Pulpit and Next Sunday Will Be Observed as "Tuberculosis Sunday"—Dr. Hurty's Sound Suggestions.

Indianapolis, April 21.—That next Sunday, April 24, be set apart as Tuberculosis Sunday, is proposed by the National Association for the Study and Prevention of Tuberculosis, which is waging a hard and effective warfare against this preventable disease. The idea is for ministers everywhere to gather such facts as they can in regard to this terrible, preventable disease, and present them to their people.

"The idea is certainly a good one," said Dr. J. N. Hurty, secretary of the state board of health, "and if carried out in good spirit and intelligence, will be of vast benefit."

"The people must learn that tuberculosis is always preventable and that it is curable in its incipency. Despite the fact that it is curable, it is not a paradox to say, the time to cure consumption is before you get it. In other words, we should live the anti-consumptive life. This means simply that we should learn the laws of our well-being, the laws of our health, and obey them. It is certainly true if the people will adopt the discoveries of hygiene in regard to disease prevention and make practical application of them to everyday life, then not only will disease decrease and life be stronger and happiness promoted, but morals and religion will be better."

"A great deal of life out of doors, coupled with plain, nourishing food and regular living, come very near covering the laws of health. Climate has nothing to do with consumption. It is the mode of living which causes it, namely, the indoor life, the breathing of bad air. It has been truthfully said that consumption is air starvation. The people must learn that fresh air is their best friend, it is their life, their energy, their happiness. Without air we cannot live five minutes. We can live without food and without water for many days. We can live without religious and moral instruction, we can live without books, and we can live without very many things, but I repeat, we cannot live without air five minutes. How foolish, then, it is to shut out the night air. The night air, which is purer than day air, bringing with it more refreshment and more health because there is less dust in it and less vibration. In the quiet night we can sleep, and one point that is conducive to sleep is the fact that the air is pure. There is no ill health or disease or sickness in night air. On the contrary it is loaded with health."

"Where people got the foolish and unsupported idea that night air was injurious," concluded Dr. Hurty, "no one can tell. It is one of those errors which people have fallen into, which has caused disease, death and expense incalculable."
